Award of Improve ECM contract for mine sites in Queensland

WorleyParsons has been awarded an Improve contract with BHP Billiton Mitsubishi Alliance (BMA) for mine sites in Queensland. The contract includes engineering and construction management (ECM) for significant capital works at six mine sites in the Bowen Basin. The contract will commence immediately and has a duration of two years with two one year options to extend.

WorleyParsons' Improve business stream is focussed on delivering ongoing improvements to our customers' sustaining and significant capital assets through long-term mutually beneficial relationships.

John Grill, WorleyParsons' Chief Executive Officer, said: "We have worked with BMA's Goonyella Riverside mine since 2008 and we are delighted to extend this relationship to these additional sites in Queensland. Through this agreement we are able to bring the expertise from our global minerals and metals business together with our experience in long-term alliance contracts."
