WorleyParsons in joint venture awarded a contract with Tennessee Valley Authority

GUBMK Constructors, a joint venture between WorleyParsons, Williams Plant Services and AECOM, has been awarded a renewed five year contract with the Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA).

GUBMK is a large maintenance and outage contractor and provides maintenance and outage services to TVA's fleet of power stations, including hydro and thermal power stations, in the Tennessee Valley, USA.

This contract is a renewal of GUBMK's prior contract that included servicing major maintenance and upgrade projects for TVA since 1991.

GUBMK will execute the services from TVA's operating facilities with support from other WorleyParsons offices.

"The renewal of this contract reflects our success in building long-term, sustainable customer relationships and our collaborative working relationship with TVA" said Andrew Wood, Chief Executive Officer of WorleyParsons.
